

TRASH THE RUNWAY

— Recycled Couture —

Spring 2022 Show – Presented by COMMON THREADS

TRASH THE RUNWAY™ is an annual independent study workshop for students in grades 6-12 held in the Common Threads Creative Lab. Participants design/create original garments from found materials & then present them in a professional runway show/competition!

This is the twelfth year of TRASH THE RUNWAY. The show has become a sought-after, sold out event for the whole family, community & artists.

We welcome individual & corporate sponsors at various levels. TRASH THE RUNWAY is a 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Corporation & all sponsorships are tax deductible.
